Itinerary

Sunday, August 18 - On your arrival in Edinburgh, Scotland, a representative of Scotland Tours & GSGA will meet you and introduce you to your drivers and Tour Manager. Two coaches will be arranged so that departure times can be staggered from the hotels to the courses. You will then travel to Inverness. En route, a tour and tasting will be arranged at the excellent Tullibardine Distillery, followed by a light lunch. Tonight you will enjoy a Welcome Dinner in your hotel, Kingsmill Hotel & Spa. Overnight in Inverness – Full driver services included today.

Monday, August 19 - Today, half the group will enjoy golf at the famous Royal Dornoch Golf Club. The other half will play the championship course at the equally historic Nairn Golf Club. Splitting the group into two manageable sizes at these courses will aid tee time accessibility and also remove lengthy delays on the 1st tee. The groups will be reversed tomorrow. Non-golfers will travel to Dornoch initially and then on to Dunrobin Castle for a tour of the castle and a falconry exhibition. Return to Dornoch later and have time to explore this quaint highland village with its famous Cathedral. This evening golfers are free to explore the city of Inverness. Overnight in Inverness – Full driver services included today.

Tuesday, August 20 - Today half the group will enjoy golf at Nairn Golf Club. The other half will play the championship course at Royal Dornoch Golf Club in a reversal of yesterday's plans. Non-golfers will have a boat trip on Loch Ness and have a tour of Urquhart Castle with some free time in Inverness. This evening you are again free to explore the city of Inverness. Overnight in Inverness – Full driver services included today.

Wednesday, August 21 - This morning will be a free morning. Those who wish a short sail on Loch Ness and brief tour of Urquhart Castle (Supplement £25) can do so before travelling to Castle Stuart - now known as Cabot Highlands - for a light lunch. Everyone plays at Castle Stuart Golf Links this afternoon. Non-golfers will have a tour of Cawdor Castle and Gardens this afternoon. Dinner will follow golf in the iconic art deco style clubhouse overlooking the Moray Firth. After golf, return to your hotel for your final night in Inverness. Overnight in Inverness – Full driver services included today.

Thursday, August 22 - Today you will check out of your hotel in Inverness and travel south to Edinburgh. A leisurely drive south, stopping for lunch to break the journey around Perth. Continue to the city of Edinburgh where guests can enjoy some of the many attractions available due to the famous Edinburgh Festival being in full swing at this time. An early dinner will be included so guests can attend an evening performance of their choice. Details of how to book tickets to performances (comedy, music, art, theatre, etc ) will be supplied nearer the date. Check into hotel, Kimpton Charlotte Square. Overnight in Edinburgh – Full driver services included today.

Friday, August 23 – This morning, travel to Gullane for a round on their two championship courses. We will be using both Gullane 1 and Gullane 2 today to fit in with tee time availability. Both are excellent links courses sitting adjacent to each other. A composite course was created from these two courses when it hosted Scottish Opens in recent years for both men and women. An early dinner in the clubhouse will follow before returning to Edinburgh. Non-golfers will have a free day in Edinburgh. A professional tour guide will be with the group to give a walking tour of the Royal Mile. Dinner is included for Non-golfers in a city centre restaurant and the group will meet up with the golfers in the early evening. This evening the entire group will have tickets supplied to attend the famous Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo, a spectacular event that is not to be missed. Overnight in Edinburgh – Full driver services included today.

Saturday, August 24 – The final game of the tour will be played at the excellent Dumbarnie Links. This new addition to the amazing choice of classic links courses in Fife should be on every golfers bucket list. This evening you will enjoy a final night group dinner in the city. Overnight in Edinburgh – Full driver services included today.

Ready to pay your deposit?

In order to secure your package and begin making your arrangements, Scotland Golf Tours offers two ways to pay your deposit. If you need help with either of the choices below, please contact Matt Vanderpool (mvanderpool@gsga.org) at the GSGA who will be happy to assist you.

Scotland Golf Tours is happy to accept your deposit by credit card or bank transfer, however, we request that all balance payments are made by bank transfer. This way you can take advantage of better exchange rates that the bank transfer will generate, thus giving you significant savings on the exchange rates.

Pay by bank: Often the best rate of exchange is when you pay by international bank transfer. Please see our bank details below:

Bank	Royal Bank of Scotland
Branch	23-25 Rosslyn Street Kirkcaldy KY1 3HW Fife Scotland
Account Name	Scotland Tours Ltd - Clients Account
Reference Number	T23141
Sort Code	832424
Account No.	00202390

Pay by credit card: To pay by credit card, visit <https://scotland-tours.com/secure-payments-page/> – please include your Tour Reference Number (T23141) at top of payment page. Please be sure to carefully enter your credit card number, expiration date, and the CCV number (the 3-digit number on the back of your card). While we are happy to accept credit card payments for commitment fees, we recommend that all balance payments are made by bank transfer as this is calculated at a much better exchange rate and incurs lower fees.

\ Pre-authorisation of foreign transactions is often required. Please contact your credit card provider if requested by us.*

\* Note: Our Credit Card merchant company charges all cardholders a 3.99% transaction fee.*

Flights, lunches & dinners (except where stated), drinks, entrances to places of interest, travel insurance, incidentals charged to your room, tips and any other items not mentioned in the itinerary.

Travel Insurance

We strongly encourage all clients to consider purchasing travel insurance should you need to cancel due to accident, illness or other insured events. Please purchase this in your home area as it is better value than us trying to buy it for you in Scotland.

Introducing the AXUS Travel App

If you choose to book your tour with us, you will receive the itinerary and details of your reservations via an app on your phone/device. For your convenience, we are using a travel app called AXUS to supply you with all the information required for your trip. After we receive your deposit you will be invited to join the app and supplied with the necessary login details to view your itinerary. It will summarise your booking and provide a breakdown of all the key components. Everyone in your group who has suitable smartphones/devices can view the itinerary.

Cancellations

In the event that any participant cancels for any reason, their deposit or final balance will only be refunded if we are able to resell your place to another golfer. We therefore encourage everyone to take travel insurance out at time of booking.

Note

The maximum handicap for this tour is 24.0 for Gentlemen and 36.0 for Ladies.
